Carnival Game Operator Information

The City of Dublin offers a unique fundraising opportunity to nonprofit organizations to operate carnival games at the splatter event. On average, nonprofit carnival game operators can earn up to $500 per game. Dublin nonprofit organizations will receive first priority. All applicants must provide proof of nonprofit status (i.e. a 501(c)3 number).

- Applications will be accepted on a first come, first served basis, with Dublin nonprofits receiving priority.
- This is a limited opportunity with only 12 nonprofit carnival game operator spaces available.
- All games and booths are provided by the City of Dublin.
- The nonprofit organization must provide the prizes. Enough prizes must be supplied for the entire event.
- It is the responsibility of the nonprofit to keep the booth open and running the entire duration of the event.
- The group can expect payment for approximately 70% of the gross revenue based on tickets collected. Payment by check will be mailed within approximately 4 weeks after the event.
- Distribution of any information or other materials is not allowed.
- Volunteers may wear an organization shirt or may supply prizes with the organization's brand in order to promote the non-profit group or agency.
- The City of Dublin will provide custom signage: "Hosted by "YOUR ORGANIZATION NAME" for each booth if application is received in advance of the sign order.
- Adult supervision of at least one adult age 21 or older is required for each booth at all times.
